

Penn State Smeal College of Business

Master of Professional Studies in Management and Organizational Leadership

Dear MOL Class of 2018,

Orientation is less than a month away and we have a tentative Orientation Schedule to share with you for today's Monday Message.

MOL Orientation Schedule

As you review the MOL Orientation Schedule for August 16 -18th you will see this is a very busy time beginning with the Ice Cream Social the evening of August 16th at 5 PM at the Business Building, 3rd Floor Terrace. This opening reception is a great time to network with the new MBA and Executive MBA students also starting in their programs this fall semester. Important to note is that Orientation activities are mandatory and all students are expected to participate in the activities during the program. Please make plans accordingly to be here.

The schedule is filled with events and activities with limited opportunities to take care of the myriad of other details that come with the start of a new semester. Thus, it is highly recommend that you arrive at least a few days ahead of time in order to find time to get settled and comfortable with your new surroundings, especially if you are new to the Penn State campus. Please note that the Orientation Schedule is subject to change and a final printed copy of the Orientation Schedule will be provided to you at your arrival on the first full-day of Orientation. The scheduled Orientation dates August 16 – 18th will not change.

International Student Orientation \(ISO\)

For International Students new to Penn State you are also required to participate in the International Student Orientation (ISO) with Global Programs. Please follow their direction for those sessions.

Please feel free to reach to us with any questions.

Sincerely,

Denise & Chelsea
