Master of Professional Studies in Management and Organizational Leadership

Dear MOL Class of 2018,

We are all growing very excited for your arrival! For this Monday's Message we thought it would be useful to put a myriad of resources at your fingertips. I am also making a desperate plea to some of you...if you have not yet begun your Pre-Term ALEKS Accounting Modules, please DO NOT delay any longer. I have been reviewing the login and completion rates for ALEKS for your class and noticed some students have yet to even login and start working on this. Please remember, the ALEKS Accounting Modules need to be completed by August 11th.

See you soon!

--Denise

New Graduate Student Orientation

In an effort to avoid some confusion, I wanted to highlight an email that you may have recently received from the Graduate School at Penn State inviting you to their 1-day Orientation on Wednesday, August 16. Our students are not required attend this orientation session.

For our new International Students, we have worked closely with Global Programs International Student Orientation (ISO) and have made arrangements for you to attend the required health insurance session with that group and I have confirmed this with Student Health Insurance Office here at Penn State.
